

THE SHARR CHEESE TRAIL

The trail is perfect destination for hikers who also like to take pictures along the route and share their memories later. The starting point is at the altitude of 1400 m above sea level. The first part of the trail goes along a beautiful small river through rich pastures and hills. The middle part of the trail provides an open view through meadows going through ski lifts and upper section of ski resort. Following further, the path reaches a throw peak 2292 m/asl. This mountain ridge provides an opportunity for endless pasture view, and the road further passes by the glacial lake of Shutman which is not to deep and provides a good refreshing opportunity. Approximately 25 minutes down the hill the hikers will have an opportunity to rest and taste traditionally made Sharr Cheese at the Shutman shepherd huts. Last part of the trail is an old dirt road that was used by local population to travel to Gostivar in old times. This section of the trail is rich with water springs and lot of water streaming.
